

Cisco WxC Calling Announcement

For MS Teams Users of the Webex Calling Desktop Client

Service Platforms:	Webex Calling
Markets:	All Webex Calling Regions
Announcement Date:	January 22 nd , 2021
Information:	Information for MS Teams users regarding Pop-up options after login to the Webex Calling Desktop Client.
Product Family:	Webex Calling Desktop Client – 22.9.18 or Newer
Login Option Details:	Important End User Information: After upgrading to a NEW version of the Webex Calling Desktop client, you may see popups after your first login as described below. For MS Team Users, we recommend answering NO to both popups. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. For MS Teams Users not wanting to use the Webex Calling App as the default Collaboration client, please select NO to the Pop-UP message after login. (Screenshot below)</li><li>2. For MS Teams Users not wanting to use the Outlook Integration feature of the Webex Calling App, please select NO to the Pop-Up message after login. (Screenshot below)</li></ol>

Please note – once you have responded NO to these popups, you will NOT be prompted again regarding these settings.